
Newcastle Community Consultative Committee on the Environment

EPA 2020P2451

The NSW Environment Protection Authority (EPA) is seeking community, environment and industry representatives to join the Newcastle Community Consultative Committee on the Environment.

The committee's role is to advise the Minister for the Environment, the EPA and other relevant NSW Government agencies on matters of environmental concern in the Newcastle Local Government Area.

The EPA welcomes applications from people who can demonstrate strong links to the local community and represent their interest groups on matters relating to the environment.

The application form, terms of reference and other information about the committee is available on the EPA website at the Newcastle Community Consultative Committee page. If you require further information on the Committee or wish to request an application form, please contact the EPA by email at hunter.region@epa.nsw.gov.au or by ringing 02 4908 6800.

Please complete all sections of this form. The EPA may contact you or your referees if further supporting information is required. All nominees will be advised in writing of the results of their applications.

Nominations must be lodged with the EPA by 5pm, Friday 11 September 2020 at the above email address or at PO Box 488G, Newcastle NSW 2300.
