To whom it may concern,

Corrumpa State Forest does not need to be logged. The impact on the environment, the flora and fauna, eco tourism, water catchment and the health of the land is far more valuable than the short term gains for the timber industry. Let the forest stand and continue to benefit the area for generations to come.

Yours Sincerely,

[Name redacted] Hawkins