PENALTY NOTICE ADVICE

Dear Sir / Madam

FAIL TO MAINTAIN PLANT AND EQUIPMENT ENVIRONMENT PROTECTION LICENCE 12003

It is alleged that on 31-Aug-2014 the following offence was committed:

Contravene condition of licence - Corporation by AGL UPSTREAM INVESTMENTS PTY LIMITED at Spring Farm gas well number 5 (SF 05) connected to the Rosalind Park Gas Plant, Medhurst Road, GILEAD, NSW, 2550 in contravention of Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997 - 64(1). AGL Upstream Investments Pty Limited did not maintain gas well SF 05 in a proper and efficient condition causing a release of coal seam gas (methane) on 31 August 2014. AGL did not comply with condition O2 'Maintenance of Plant and Equipment' of Environment Protection Licence 12003 which states: 'All plant and equipment installed at the premises or used in connection with the licensed activity: a) must be maintained in a proper and efficient condition; and b) must be operated in a proper and efficient manner'

Your choices are, within 28 days of the date of issue to;

- a) Pay the amount in full by one of the payment methods listed.
- b) Elect to have the matter dealt with by a court, or
- c) Request a review of the circumstances by providing a written representation.

Your payment, court election or request for review must be received by the State Debt Recovery Office within 28 days to prevent further collection action taking place.

The Fines Act 1996 prevents the State Debt Recovery Office from reducing a penalty, or extending the time for payment.

Yours sincerely

Part C

What will happen if you do not act on this penalty notice by the due date?

You will receive a penalty reminder notice. If not actioned by the due date on the reminder notice, further action will be taken by the State Debt Recovery Office (SDRO). This will involve additional costs and may include driver licence or vehicle registration restrictions in Australia as well as restrictions on doing business with Australian traffic authorities.

How should you respond this penalty notice?

You must choose one of the following options and respond within 21 days (28 days for Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997) of date of offence.

- Option 1 Pay the fine using one of the payment methods detailed over the page under payment options. If mailing your payment, the penalty number must be recorded.
- Option 2 If you wish to seek leniency based on certain circumstance, or if you believe an error has been made, information on requesting a review of your penalty notice is available at www.sdro.nsw.gov.au.
- Option 3 Have the matter determined by a court. To do this, complete and submit the court election form at www.sdro.nsw.gov.au. The law does not permit SDRO to send a court attendance to a PO Box. No other review will be conducted after the court election form has been received. Note: the court may impose additional cost.
- Option 4 If this offence carries demerit points and you were not the driver of the vehicle at the time of offence, provide fill details of the driver by completing the statutory declaration which can be downloaded from www.sdro.nsw.gov.au. Do not send any payment as a new penalty notice will be issued to the person named in the statutory declaration. False nomination is a serious offence which carries additional penalties.
