Hello NSW Consultation Paper

A way to make sure we can bring pollution down is to make it legal that every new house that is built has to have solar power by law. Also making all home owner to make sure they do before 2018 have solar power. For people with low income in NSW housing should prepare to get solar power from their home to make it a little better because of high electric bills.

Regards

Julie Coleman.