Hi folks,

I have had a look at the consultation paper you've circulated and am disappointed that indoor air quality is not addressed. We spend a significant part of our lives indoors and there are a range of factors that could be addressed in a state-wide government supported process dealing with the air we all breathe.

I wish you well in your considerations of submissions and in the process to develop a final strategy.

Warmest regards,

John McDougall